

Our community calendar is an important resource that everyone should be using for their public events. It is literally FREE advertising for your event. If you're a non-profit, as long as you put your event on the community calendar it will go onto the Marquee (The big electronic sign by the electric plant)

The next time you're planning an event, get it on the community calendar right away, help spread the word and increase your events attendance numbers!

<https://business.explorehutchinson.com/events/public-submission>

Table tents & the QR code (Your info goes on both now) are another GREAT way to get the news about your event out to the public. Table tents and the QR code are in businesses across Hutchinson. Submit your event today!

<https://explorehutchinson.com/hutchinson-event-marketing/>